COREY HOGAN, Carlstadt, NJ

Upon earning a Multimedia Design degree from American University, I decided printing was a great way to secure a future! Still listed as one of his greatest accomplishments, Mark Facchin hired me as a prepress operator in 2004 (working for Color By Pergament) and I have never looked back. In 2012, I crossed the Hudson River to join the infamous ranks of EMR Graphics and this is where I met Michael Laraia. Subsequently, and obviously one of his greatest accomplishments, he groomed me to become the Studio Manager at Peeq Media. Next stop? Conquer the world! Or just meet Trump.

A lover of many things: sports, sneakers, great food, fine cigars, live music, and a crisp pair of khaki pants. Oh, and my wife. Definitely my wife. She may read this and I just got married, so let's put wife at the top of my list. During the summer you can find me down the shore, and in the winter, snowboarding the mountains out west, hoping to not fall - I've got a 401k to protect!

My favorite part of my job is the people. Anyone can hit cmd +p, but if you surround yourself with great people, the work seems to come a bit easier. Also, it won't be fun when we're all replaced by robots. But I bet I'll still try and strike up a conversation.

A Fun Fact about me: I am LEFT handed. We are the only ones in our RIGHT mind.
