"We work as a team and try to make every day a success."

Located just minutes from the world famous Miami Beach, the Miami shop at ABC Imaging is one big family. Many of our employees have worked here for years, and we always strive to give our customers professional and efficient service. We provide print solutions and digital document management services for the architecture, engineering, and construction industry (AEC) and other market sectors around the globe. We bundle services and products to provide commercial clients a one-stop shop for print solutions. We are constantly expanding our services and products to offer consumers a wide range of print solutions.

Ambriorix Canela, Virtual Client Relations Manager, ABC Imaging New York
 Before joining ABC Imaging in 2016, Ambriorix worked at FedEx Office in Manhattan for a year and a half, where he managed the daily operations and communications with clients. He loves the versatility of his current role with ABC Imaging: meeting and interacting with clients on a daily basis, and being able to address and resolve client issues while managing their expectations. In his spare time, Ambi likes to travel and explore different cities. He enjoys reading, meeting up with friends, and has recently started to follow soccer, finding it to be an interesting sport. He also loves animals, truly enjoying being around horses, fish, and even wild animals.

MARKETING NEWS

From Deborah Mattox, Marketing Manager:
Matt Pavlo and Michael Soueid recently travelled to the ABC New York and Peeq Carlstadt shops to help produce a holographic "virtual greeter" to put in each shop around the U.S. The idea is to showcase our broad capabilities beyond basic print services, including 3D printing, laser cutting and etching, and of course holograms! And since we hired an actress to produce a video for the virtual greeter, we figured we would use the opportunity to film a commercial as well. We put together a full crew to produce a prime-time-quality commercial that we expect to get mileage out of for the next several years.

HEALTH CORNER

Summer is a time for families to recharge, relax and appreciate warmer, longer days.

Here are five helpful strategies to help you and your family have your healthiest summer yet:

- Eat Well: Take advantage of summer's fruit and veggie bounty. Enjoy local farmers markets and pick a new fruit or vegetable to try at your next meal!
- Get Moving: Adults need at least 30 minutes of exercise to stay healthy. Run, play, jump, skip, swim – the options for summertime fun and physical activity are endless, so ditch the screens for some fresh air!
- Drink Water: High temperatures and lots of outdoor activity make it extra important to stay hydrated in summer. Even mild dehydration can cause tiredness, headaches, and lack of concentration. Listen to your body's needs and let thirst be your guide.
- Stay Protected in the Sun: Prolonged exposure to sunlight can increase your risk of skin cancer. Whether you're going for a short walk or spending a day at the beach, be smart and lather up! Choose a water-resistant, broad-spectrum sunscreen with a SPF of 30 or higher to best protect yourself.
- Be Food Safe: Summer is a time for picnics and potlucks. Don't let food-borne illness ruin the festivities! Regularly wash hands with soap and water, and separate cooking surfaces to keep raw seafood, meat and poultry away from fresh produce.
